

SID CHIDIAC

Chocolate & Oil Painter

Sid Chidiac is a highly talented Chocolate & Oil Painter from New York. Originally from Sydney, Australia. KISMET Magazine jumped at the chance to interview Sid as we found him to be extremely talented.

Where do you get your inspiration from?

Inside my head. It's like the ocean. When you put your head under the water you see moving fish in different colors and it rocks like the ocean inside me.

Who are your influences in the art world?

I love Michael Angelo and Picasso too. Those are my favorite two artists because Picasso, some of his work was hardly finished and he sold it and he got a lot of complaints about arts and there are more negative people on the face of the earth than positive. I guess he continued on.

If you were not a painter what would you be?

I don't know, maybe something in the finance business, because i like numbers and words. I like very big numbers.

Where is your favorite place in the world?

I would say home, Australia. I love walking among the gum trees, breaking their leaves and smelling them. I miss Australia a lot. I go about two months every year, but its not enough.
